2. Best Practices in Community Engagement: Community Service through Eye-Check Up and medical Camps

The Context	Since its inception, the college is committed to the needs of the community and community services so as the students, faculty and community can forge linkage and community can be benefitted. The NSS unit of the college has organized Eye check-up camps and medical camps at different rural areas for men and women and children of the economically backward classes. People who had developed cataract has been detected and detailed reports of normal and abnormal eyes have been given to them, as an outcome of this activity most of the aged person have found cataract in their eyes and we have counselled them for operation by Doctors. Rotary Eye institute has volunteered free operation of these patients. Free spectacles have been given to them.
The objectives of the Practice	To facilitate medical facilities for economically weak people.
The Practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The college organizes Eye-check-up/mega medical Check-up camps in villages every year in annual NSS camps.</li> <li>• By this practice the institute attempts to help the village community to take advantage of the best medical facilities free of cost. By this practice college play a dynamic role in helping village community.</li> <li>• College contacts expert doctors and invite their team with all required medical equipment.</li> <li>• Local villagers are benefitted by this practice. Some poor patients are given free spectacles</li> </ul>
Obstacles faced if any and strategies adopted to overcome them	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• NSS organizes Eye Check=Up and Mega medical Camps in special Annual camps every year. One village is selected and along with many other objectives, keeping in view the locational advantages these camps are kept to facilitate medical facility at free of cost to the needy ones.</li> <li>• However, to convince people to come to the camp remains a big challenge for the because people expresses their helplessness to reach to the place of the medical camp due to lack of transport facility. This problem is overcome by taking help of some people who have transport facilities who</li> </ul> readily agree to carry patients to the camp and to drop again at their homes.

Impact of the practice	This practice helps the rural people to avail best medical facility free of any cost or at nominal cost.
Resources required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• ‘Jaha Chah vahan Rah’ dictum is true in case of the institute. In all camps doctors have volunteered their services without taking any charges.</li> <li>• Since many years the medical team of Rotary Eye Institute has been rendering its services with the team of doctors and other needed instruments, Bus facility etc.</li> <li>• Required medicines are given free of cost to the needy patients.</li> <li>• Space for camps is provided by the local authorities like medical units, school authorities etc. School premises etc. where the camp is organized every year.</li> <li>• NSS students along with the local youth work with great enthusiasm and contribute in the service of humanity every year.</li> </ul>
